

Rob Thomas is currently serving as the Chief of the Hydrology & Hydraulics/Water Management Branch for the Galveston District. Prior to joining the Galveston District Mr. Thomas worked for the USACE Engineering Research and Design Center focusing on research in coastal engineering, navigation, and data management. Mr. Thomas is a registered Professional Engineer in Texas and Louisiana, has an M.S. in Ocean Engineering, and B.S. in Maritime Systems Engineering from Texas A&M.